Testimonials

Our sales presentation was complex and potentially dull. Candy showed me how to simplify our message, add impactful slides and use props and humour. I now deliver with a great deal more confidence, and effect.

Managing Director, Internet Company

We had a conference theme and speakers of varying experience. Working with Candy our theme came alive – and so did our speakers!

Marketing Manager, Air-Conditioning Manufacturer

Presenting to the Board of Directors can be a daunting task. Candy showed me firstly how to build rapport with each Board member and then how to sell my plan so they would approve it. I was surprised just how easy it was.

National General Manager, Insurance Company

We wanted a fun concept to promote a new initiative to staff members around Australia. Candy's creative approach produced a memorable event that involved members of the audience and showed the humanistic side of our senior team. She wrote the script, coached presenters and even produced a fun handout to reinforce the key messages.
